

WELCOME TO

Aquitaine

On the Atlantic coast, discover the sandy beaches of the Gironde and Landes regions, bordered by pine forests. Inland, find untouched medieval villages and proud fortified towns, prehistoric remains and countless gourmet food shops.

Aquitaine has one hundred and one different faces: ocean, forests, vines, countryside and mountains, châteaux which have survived the centuries and proud wine-producing domains. As you pass through the region you will see everything change imperceptibly: ways of life and customs, people and their accents, even the way the beret is carried worn.
